

FootPrints for Peace

March 13, 2010, an international walk through Columbus, Ohio shares a vision for peace, And a circus is coming to town, too!!

The international Peace Flame from Hiroshima, Japan accompanies the walk.

Join us for a public event at the Summit Church on 16th st.

Z DM The Olive Tree Circus Troupe and a discussion about nuclear Abolition

On February 13, 2010, Footprints for Peace began a three-month action at the gates of the Y-12 Nuclear Processing Plant in Paduca, Tennessee with the intention of walking, by May 1, 2010, to New York City for the United Nations' Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty Review Conference. The evening's festivities will include a short description of the Footprints for Peace sponsored walk to New York.

FootPrints for Peace

March 13, 2010, an international walk through Columbus, Ohio shares a vision for peace, And a circus is coming to town, too!!

The international Peace Flame from Hiroshima, Japan accompanies the walk.

Join us for a public event at the Summit Church on 16th st.

Z DM The Olive Tree Circus Troupe and a discussion about nuclear Abolition

On February 13, 2010, Footprints for Peace began a three-month action at the gates of the Y-12 Nuclear Processing Plant in Paduca, Tennessee with the intention of walking, by May 1, 2010, to New York City for the United Nations' Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty Review Conference. The evening's festivities will include a short description of the Footprints for Peace sponsored walk to New York.